

Climate Action

Thinking Globally - Acting Locally

Hear about the United Nations and global efforts to engage local communities in solving the climate crisis. Understand how the Village of Wilmette and the Environmental and Energy Commission is working toward developing a comprehensive sustainability plan. Learn how Evanston is improving its environmental practices and lowering its carbon footprint and what this looks like in practice.

Thursday, February 28, 7 pm
Wilmette Public Library – Lower Level
Questions? Contact pres2lwvw18@gmail.com

Speakers

Rebecca Boyd, Environmental Attorney, LWVUS Delegate to the UN Conference on Climate Change in Poland, Commissioner of Wilmette's Environmental and Energy Commission

Lauren Marquez-Viso, VP of Citizens' Greener Evanston and Co-Chair of Evanston's Climate Action and Resilience Plan Working Group

Jonathan Nieuwsma, President of Citizens' Greener Evanston

*Sponsored by LWV-Wilmette
LWV-Evanston and Go Green
Wilmette*

